THE LAWYERS AT FLEURY, COMERY LLP

Our clients might be interested in some background information about the lawyers at this firm.

EDWARD R. FLEURY, Q.C.

Ed founded this practice in 1957 after his call to the bar that year. Some of his first and enduring clients were patrons of his father's tavern business at the old Glen Eagle Hotel, where Ed himself had worked part time to support himself in law school. While initially Ed took on any kind of case, he quickly began to specialize in real estate and corporate/commercial matters after Bill Comery (deceased, 2008) became his partner in the firm in 1960.

Ed has been active in local affairs over the years, including a term as Chairman of the Scarborough Centenary Hospital where he remains an active board member. He is also an avid golfer and is a long standing member and former president of the Scarborough Golf Club. Ed's favourite kind of case involves municipal and administrative matters including appeals to tribunals such as the Ontario Municipal Board and the Assessment Appeal Board.

GREGORY E. McCONNELL, M.A., LL.B.

Originally from Woodstock, Ontario, Greg attended Carleton University, York University and finally the University of Toronto to complete an M.A. in History. After a four-year stint as a teacher in Thailand, Greg decided on law as his career. He graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School and then was called to the bar in 1983. For five years he articulated and then practised law as a junior to a well-respected personal injury lawyer, Paul Shannon. During this time he came to deal with Bill Comery, and in 1986 Greg moved to Fleury, Comery.

Greg will conduct most kinds of litigation including commercial disputes, divorces, construction liens, estate litigation and even dog bite cases. Greg is the firm's computer expert. He helped establish our website as one of the first law firm websites in Scarborough. Greg's community involvement includes several years as Chairman of our local Heritage Festival, of which he remains an active committee member. His favourite cases, such as estate litigation and appeal work, involve legal research and writing where it can make a difference.

STEPHEN FLEURY, B.Sc., LL.B.

Yes, Stephen is related to Ed, namely, as his nephew. Stephen joined the firm in 1992 and has distinguished himself as a litigator in family law and employment law. Stephen also practices in the areas of Wills and Estates, and collection matters. Stephen keeps himself busy outside the office with his young family, and involvement as a member of the Knights of Columbus. Stephen's favourite kind of cases are trial matters.

PETER SIALTSIS, B.B.A., B.A., LL.B.

Peter Sialtsis is a long-time resident of the West Hill area and returned to the community to join the firm in March of 2003. After completing his articles in London, Ontario, Peter worked as a research assistant with the Practice Advisory department of the Law Society until his Call to the Ontario Bar in 2000. Peter has practiced in the real estate, wills/estates, corporate/commercial and civil litigation areas since his Call. Peter completed his undergraduate studies at Wilfrid Laurier University, with a degrees in Business Administration and in Geography. Peter received his Bachelor of Laws degree from Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia. At Fleury, Comery LLP Peter practices primarily in the areas of real estate, wills/estates and corporate/commercial law.

Outside the office Peter keeps himself busy as an OMHA minor hockey official, umpire in OBA and minor baseball with Softball Ontario. His favourite types of work involve negotiating agreements of all types, and he particularly enjoys assisting first-time buyers in the purchase of their new homes.

DANIEL S. SAVOIE, B.A., LL.B.

Daniel is a Scarborough native who, like Peter, did his law school training outside Ontario, specifically, at the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton. Daniel completed his Articling term at our firm and was called to the Bar in June, 2011. He commenced as a junior associate immediately thereafter. We have come to admire Daniel's incisive analysis and excellent research skills, and we know he is going provide outstanding service and representation to his clients
